

WE WORK THE WATERWAYS

Maritime Interaction Day

Alton, IL

March 4, 2026

National Great Rivers Museum
#2 Locks and Dam Way
East Alton, IL 62024

Event Time: 9:30-1:00

Engaging Presentations

Hear from our team and maritime professionals about the industry's impact on daily life

Hands-On Activities

Station by station, students experience hands-on learning about maritime career paths

Interact with Industry Experts

A chance for students to connect, ask questions, and gain insight from industry professionals

Immersive Tours

Port and vessel tours offer students a chance to see and learn something new

Who We Are

WWW is a national education outreach program that exists to build lasting connections between communities and the people who make up the maritime, shipping, and logistics industries.

Information and Registration:

- Free Event T-shirt for Students and Educators
- Lunch Provided
- Register Online!

What is a Maritime Interaction Day?

Maritime Interaction Days are high-energy events that give students an immersive look into the various maritime careers through hands-on learning, face-to-face connections and career exploration tools.

Contact Us:

Visit www.weworkthewaterways.org or email contact@weworkthewaterways.com

Flagship supporter:

